

Worksheet #4

Communication skills

- What is the main thing that you learnt today about how to communicate well during the recruitment process?

- What do you think is the best way for you to show your enthusiasm for the job to a potential employer?

- How will you let your employer know about any First Nations commitments you may have?

- How can you show your unique First Nations skills and attributes to a potential employer during the recruitment process?
